CHRIS BUCK: Wow, this is amazing. We would love to thank BAFTA and also our cast and crew. It took about 600 people that were on this one, so I would like to thank them for all -- we have thousands of storyboard drawings that they had to do and redraw. They made mountains of ice and snow for us and also there were hundreds of hours of voice recording and computer rigging to create our characters and bring them to life.

JENNIFER LEE: We will never forget Bobby and Kristen Lopez on the piano every day and John Lasseter strutting down the hall flipping his hair round, singing Let It Go, to demonstrate how Elsa should, and to Ed Catmull who slammed his hand on a table one day and screamed, "We have got ourselves a musical". To them we want to say thank you, and this is for you.

CHRIS BUCK: Thank you.
